Christmas letter from Rev'd Diane....

Dear Friends,

First of all, may I take this opportunity for both Nigel and I to wish you all a very happy Christmas.

Thank you to all those people who will be taking on extra duties over the Christmas period, it is very much appreciated.

Christmas certainly provides us with all sorts of extra opportunities to reach out to those in our communities. May God bless all our endeavours to share his love at this very special time of year.

A painting by Leonardo Da Vinci has just been sold for a record $450m. That makes it the most expensive painting ever. It is called Salvator Mundi and depicts Christ, with his hand raised as if about to give a priestly blessing (see below). He is the Saviour of the World, says Leonardo. It is a beautiful painting in which Jesus is holding a glass globe representing the whole world.

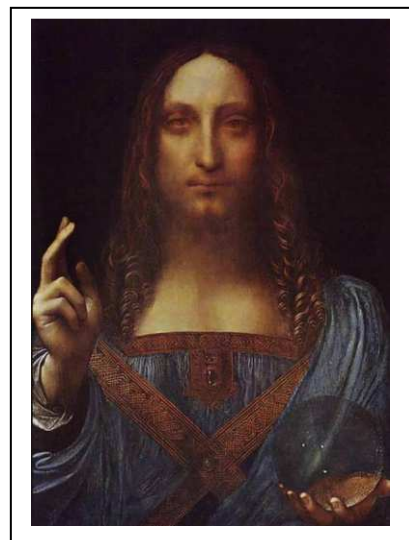

It is ironic indeed that such a painting should come with so great a price tag; when at Christmas we are called to remember and reflect upon, the completely free self-giving of God in Jesus.

We call this self-giving "Incarnation". Below, I have attempted to write a short piece of prose which takes its inspiration from Genesis Ch. 1, the prologue to St. John's Gospel and the letter to the Hebrews in which Christ is called "The Pioneer and Perfecter of Faith".

Incarnation

First gift, first light,
First morning.
First word, first song,
First Dawning.
Time given before time,
Chaos moulded into rhyme.

In the beginning, at the start,
At the core, at the heart.
Word of God,
Only Son,
Love in essence,
Permanent one.

See the grace, tacked on grace.
See the Son take His place.
Surrender all,
Bend so low,
Provide a space for you to know.

Incarnation drawing near,
Babe in arms, pioneer.
Incarnation has begun.
God the Father,
Sends the Son.

Love and God Bless, Diane

All are invited to "Mince pies at the Manse" on Thursday 21st December any time between 2 p.m. and 6 p.m.

*A song was heard at Christmas
To wake the midnight sky:
A Saviour's birth and peace on earth
And praise to God on high.*

*The angels sang at Christmas
With all the hosts above
And still we sing the newborn King
His glory and his love.*

Looking forward to a special holiday – from Emma (Trinity)

I am very excited – looking forward to my holiday following the 'Way of St James' to Santiago de Compostela. I'm doing this in what is the easiest way for me; I will be 71 when I go and have no history of long treks with my belongings on my back! (this was the route taken in the film "The Way" which was used as the ecumenical lent study course earlier this year)

Santiago de Compostela Cathedral

Among the places we will be visiting are:

The town of Saint-Jean-Pied-de-Port

The Monastery of San Salvador of Leyre and the town of Sangüesa town

A walking tour of Pamplona

Logrono town visit

Rioja winery tour and tasting

Santo Domingo de la Calzada visit

Tour of Burgos

León orientation tour

Santiago de Compostela Cathedral tour

I am fortunate not to have to carry my bag on my back as there is portering at all the hotels!

I will keep a diary and let you know all about my 12 day adventure.
