From Rev'd Diane....

Dear Friends,

On the 4th February Gainsborough Library will be the venue of our next Circuit Service. Lay Workers, Elizabeth Storey and Debbie Peck, have established a really healthy working relationship with the Library Staff who have welcomed the Methodist Church with open arms. Can I please urge you to come to this Service and be encouraged by this developing relationship which was born of work that Deacon Georgina Brooks began. Together, Elizabeth and Debbie have developed the work. At this service, Library Staff will be thanked for their all-important part in this relationship. John Wesley once famously said, "The whole world is my Parish" and across the Circuit much important work is carried out by a whole host of lay folk and supernumerary ministers.

Methodism is facing an unprecedented challenge, as a short-fall in Ministers means that up to 56 appointments will remain unfilled this coming Connexional year. However, can I assure you that within the Ipswich Circuit the Leadership team are working very hard to address this shortfall. One very positive way forward has been the employment of more lay workers, and by the time you read this a new additional Pastoral Worker will have been appointed to work alongside myself. I urge you all to be very optimistic in your assessment of the Methodist Church and its future development. It is true we face very challenging times, but we are and always have been a grass roots moment. The priesthood of all believers continues to be so much a part of our DNA.

Recently, I have been revisiting the novel "Adam Bede" by George Eliot (pen name of Mary Ann Evans), in which the work of lay Methodist Preacher Dinah Morris plays such a prominent role and vital role. If you have not read this novel, it might inspire you once more to thank God for the work of the laity and our joint calling to share the love of God with all.

Rev'd Diane

Count your Blessings

If you would like to do something for, or think of, those less fortunate than ourselves during Lent this year, you may like to look at Christian Aid's 'Count your Blessings' scheme, a daily calendar entitled, 'Walk into the wilderness this Lent'.

Christian Aid writes, "As we follow Jesus' journey this Lent, let's confront the wilderness in our own world. Let's walk with our neighbours who have been forced to flee their homes. You'll reflect on the blessings in your life, and you'll see how your support gives people hope."

Each day it gives you a situation that many in the world find themselves in and gives us an opportunity to give thanks for our own riches. It suggests donating small amounts of money to Christian Aid but even if you were unable to do this, the leaflet could act as a useful daily prayer resource for Lent (starting on Ash Wednesday 14th February). If you would like a copy you can download it from www.christianaid.org.uk/lent (for Seaton Road folk there is a copy on the church noticeboard) and there is also a children's version available.

Each week a session will include a study of part of the film and will be the same at each church. You can attend at any venue & any time to suit you. Come & go as you are able.

The extraordinary true story of an unlikely friendship in the later years of Queen Victoria's rule. Abdul Kerim, a young clerk, travels from India to participate in the Golden Jubilee. The two forge an unlikely & devoted alliance. As the friendship deepens the Queen begins to see a changing world through new eyes & joyfully reclaims her humanity.

If people are unable to go to any of the listed showings I have a number of DVD's of Victoria and Abdul for folk to burrow and watch in the comfort of their own homes. I will be showing the film at the Manse on Thursday 8th of Feb at 7.30pm. (There will, of course, be a limited amount of space) Diane.

Fairtrade Fortnight in Felixstowe

This will be launched at Trinity Methodist Church at a coffee morning on Monday 26th February by the Mayor of Felixstowe, Nick Barber. There will be a Fairtrade walk organised in conjunction with Felixstowe Walkers before the launch.

We are also working with Felixstowe Library and the town's Youth Forum to organise a special "Family Fun Day" at the library on Saturday 3rd March, from 10 a.m. to 4.30 p.m. The event will be held in the former café area and Fairtrade refreshments will be served throughout the day. There will be competitions and prizes, a raffle and a Fairtrade stall.

There will be activities within schools in the period leading up to and during Fairtrade Fortnight and the fortnight will be brought to a close at a coffee morning at the United Reformed Church on 10th March.

Surely we have it reversed.

Goodwill to all must come first. Shirley Nelson.

Godly Play

As from the 17th of January, a small group of individuals from Kirton Methodist Chapel have been involved in a weekly after-school club at Trimley St. Martin Primary School.

We are grateful to the Headteacher, Mrs Ross, who has welcomed the team with such enthusiasm.

The sessions run each Wednesday, in term time, immediately after school from 3.30pm until 5pm.

We are looking for more volunteers to go on the rota to tell the Godly Play stories; if you would like to be involved in any way please do contact me.

We are hoping that this relationship between Kirton Chapel and the school will develop further and lead to running some fun mornings for the children in the future, during school holidays.

Diane.

Samaritan Purse Shoebox appeal 2018

As I think of 2018 and what it will bring, I have been thinking about the shoe boxes and the journey they have taken and the excited children who received them.

Looking back I am very grateful to all those who supplied items for the boxes and made boxes up, thank you. The only downside of this is the donation of money to cover transport etc. If we hadn't received generous donations from a few individuals we wouldn't have had enough to cover the transport costs. I don't want to deter those who donate goods. A suggestion of Samaritan Purse is to hold coffee mornings, have a cake stall or have a special service with a retiring collection etc. to raise money for transport costs.

If you would be willing to help me to raise money so that the shoebox appeal could reach 70 this year instead of 64 please get in contact with me at fran_keeble@sky.com

Happy New Year

Computer Club Transformation

The Computer Club at Seaton Road has been running since 2002 and many people have not only enjoyed learning a little more about computers, but have also enjoyed the social aspect of the club. Our numbers have now dropped but those who come still value the time spent together and didn't want to stop completely, so we thought we would change into a more general hobbies club. We will meet on Thursday afternoons (apart from the third Thursday in the month which is the day of the Seaton Road Church Lunch) from 2.00 to 4.00 p.m. Those who wish may still have help with their computers and you would be welcome to bring along your own laptops or tablets. But we would welcome everyone to bring along any hobby that interests them, e.g. knitting, crochet, drawing or painting. The table tennis table is also available for anyone who wants to be a bit more active! Please bring along any hobby you fancy and share your interests over a cup of tea. You may even enjoy teaching somebody else your skill. We aim to start the transformed club on Thursday March 8th. We will now meet downstairs but there will still be access to the internet.

In Act 1 of this ingenious thriller, actress Celia is questioned by the police about the murder of her husband. She is obviously in the clear, but Neville, the drunken journalist sleeping in her bed, had been in an argument with him shortly before the murder. The solution seems simple. But Act 2 takes place before the murder, and all our expectations are turned on their heads! Who is silhouetted? This original play will surprise and perplex!
