Finance News

The church has recently received a very generous donation of £1250 from a member of the congregation who wishes to remain anonymous. This has reminded your treasurer that the church received £600 back in November; also from an anonymous source. Many thanks to both donors. With on-line banking it is quite possible to make an anonymous donation. I shall acknowledge any substantial anonymous donations in the notices but it can take some time for the gift to show up in the bank statement.
