Harvest preparations:

We invite you to come along on Saturday 17th September from 10 a.m. to help decorate the Church for Harvest.

Dear Friends,

September marks the beginning of a New Methodist Year and as such, many churches will commence their full programme of activities once again and a number of ministers will also begin new appointments. We will indeed be welcoming to our own circuit, Deacon Georgina Brooks and Rev Beverley Barclay and our prayers I'm sure will also be with them as they settle into their new roles and also with Rev

Peggy Heim as she begins her ministry in Bexhill, Sussex. It is also a time when some Methodist churches, such as ours, take part in the annual Covenant Service, first established by our founder John Wesley back in the late 18th century. I'm really sorry I won't be with you on the 11th when you renew your Covenant but I know you will be in very good hands as Rev Alan Taylor, our circuit superintendent is with you on that day.

At the heart of the Covenant service is an invitation to commit or re-commit ourselves to serving God in the year ahead. I know at the beginning of this, my third year with you, what a blessing it has brought many of you and to others in carrying out that commitment. I am also aware of the pain it can cause when (and I include myself here) we have tried to serve our church and community in our own strength. We can feel isolated, tired and a failure. So before we make our commitment to His service this year let's remind ourselves of our Lord's promise which is also part of the covenant service. He promises us 'New Life in Christ', a life that brings us peace and joy and the power and strength to do His will. I do hope you have found or find the thrill of serving your Lord in His way.

So on the 11th as you stand and make your commitment "I am no longer my own but yours..." remember to open yourself up to the renewing powers of God's promise to be with you always. Put your life in the hands of the one you can totally trust to see you through the year ahead with all the necessary strength and power to do His will.

I leave you with the verse some of you know quite well especially those who attended this year's holiday club. It was a verse children and adults alike committed to memory and I believe will serve us well to recall on the 11th and into the year ahead.

Joshua 24: 15 "Choose yourself today whom you will serve. As for me, I will serve the Lord"

God Bless

David

Walton Parish Nursing, Felixstowe

Seaton Road Methodist Church & Maidstone Road Baptist Church are in the first stages of coming together into a new ecumenical partnership of Parish Nursing to serve the community of Walton.

Funding has been secured from The Methodist Church to support this project for 3 years. Our vision is to employ two part-time Parish Nurses to continue the work already established by MRBC, which has specialised in care of the elderly, but also to develop new areas of work where need has been identified in Walton, namely work with young people and families.

A job advert for a new Parish Nurse is currently being circulated.

A new constitution is being drawn up to embrace the new ecumenical project. Charitable status is being sought via a CIO, Charitable Incorporated Organisation, which will be up and running once the new legislation has gone through parliament.

For this new project to work both churches will need people from their congregations to help with the running of it; people who have a passion for Parish Nursing and a belief that God is calling us to this ministry, that of being Christians outside our church walls.

The project will be run by a set of trustees and a management team drawn from both churches.

As a church we are asked to prayerfully consider the roles and recognise the gifts needed.

The following are abbreviated descriptions of each role.

The Trustees

- The trustees will work to the CIO constitution.
- The trustees shall be accountable to the churches.
- The trustees shall oversee the appointment of the Parish Nurse.
- The trustees shall ensure compliance with all legal requirements.
- The trustees shall have the power to amend the way of working.

The Management Team shall be responsible for:

- Appointing the Parish Nurse(s).
- Monitoring the work of the Parish Nurse(s) and volunteers, to ensure that the objects of Walton Parish Nursing, Felixstowe are met.
- Overseeing the raising of funds and publicising its work.
- Providing news and information about the work of Walton Parish Nursing, Felixstowe for the participating churches.
- Championing Parish Nursing in the church and the community
- Deciding and agreeing how the ministry serves the churches and community.

Chairperson

- To plan management team meetings with the Secretary.
- To keep order at meetings and ensure everyone has a say.
- To ensure meetings are time limited and stick to the point.
- To ensure that decisions are arrived at in a fair and orderly way
- To summarise decisions made at the end of each agenda item.
- To act as a spokesperson for the group, when required.

Treasurer

- To administer the financial affairs of the group.
- To keep accounts of all financial transactions.

Secretary

- To take minutes and follow up decisions taken.
- To answer general enquiries and take appropriate action
- To maintain a supply of the group's publications and publicity material.
- To ensure good communications between members .

Line Manager

- Oversees the day to day running of Parish Nursing

Spiritual mentor

- Provides spiritual support for the Parish Nurse.
- Prays regularly for the Parish Nurse, especially on the days when they are on duty, but also on other days, for their health, strength, well-being and walk with the Lord, their family life and their relationships

Professional mentor

- Supports, mentors and provides advice to the Parish Nurse.
- Gives advice on the professional nursing aspects of Parish Nursing.
- Ensures that the Parish Nurse adheres to rules laid down by the Nursing Midwifery council and work to local and national nursing guidelines.

Other possible roles

Volunteer representative

Fundraiser

Who is the most gifted for this role?

Who is God calling to do this work?

Please pray for Walton Parish Nursing that both churches may be able to fulfil this ministry of showing God's love & care for individuals in and around Walton, enabling people to be healed and whole.

Walton Churches Update

The Churches of Walton are continuing to pray regularly together and to put on a variety of joint activities as we seek to serve our local community of Walton in Jesus' name.

This Summer our activities have included....

1. Our very successful Holiday Club at Seaton Road had both helpers and children from other Walton Churches.
2. Several people from our church were involved in the Away Day Holiday held at Maidstone Road Baptist Church along with Parish Nursing and Hope Trust. About twenty people and 14 helpers had a great day on the theme ' Felixstowe Past and Present'.
3. The Tea and Chat brigade enjoyed a different place to Tea and Chat when we joined in St. Mary's Open Churches Week tea party.
4. Plans for our joint Parish Nursing Ministry continue to take shape.

Events to Come :

On Friday October 28th 7.30 p.m.

The Bible in Voice and Verse – A concert of music inspired by key Bible passages, and part of the King James' Bible 400th anniversary celebrations, is being organised by St. Mary's and held at MRBC.

Please can as many of our people as possible do our bit by supporting this event. No tickets but we shall need about 100 people attending and making donations of approximately £5 per person to cover the cost of the professional group who are performing this for us.

It should be a great Walton Churches evening! Book it in your diary now! Bring your friends! And please remember our plans in your prayers.

AWAYDAY

Thursday August 4th was AWAYDAY at Maidstone Road Baptist Church. This was the third year of AWAYDAY organised by the Walton churches and Hope Trust; the idea being to provide an enjoyable day out for the elderly, particularly those who are unable to take a summer holiday. Many were brought courtesy of the FACTS bus. We had about 25 “visitors”.

The theme this year was “Felixstowe Past and Present” which proved popular as we tried to identify photos of Felixstowe. Usually naming the location was easy (Spa Pavilion, Q Tower) but naming the decade was more of a challenge (the clue was to look at what the ladies were wearing).

We had a talk on what Felixstowe used to be like and many could remember the days before the Docks, the old-fashioned shops on the Parade, the number of Martello Towers around the town from P to V, the 1953 flood (when over 40 died) and when the pier was $\frac{3}{4}$ mile long and trips by steamer could be had from the end of it.

There were quizzes, a sing-song, delicious fish and chips for lunch and much conversation between helpers and visitors and reminiscences of the old days.

It was an opportunity for Paul Taylor, as manager of Hope Trust, to engage with visitors, offer assistance from Hope Trust and remind them of the open coffee morning every Wednesday and the monthly activities afternoon on Mondays for those feeling lonely or needing company of others.

MRBC were great hosts and provided a very happy day out.

Here's to the next time!

'MISSION AREA SUPPER AND CONCERT'

Venue: Trinity Methodist Church
Date: Friday 25th November 2011
6.15pm

This year we would really like all four Mission Area Churches to come together for a hot dog supper followed by entertainment, in the form of a concert.

Please give some thought as to whether you can offer a form of entertainment and if so please have a word with any of the Stewards.

And if your preference is to be 'entertained' as opposed to providing the 'entertainment,' still pop the date in your diary and come along and enjoy an evening of fun and fellowship.

Everyone welcome

From the Vestry Stewards.....

September - a season of mists and mellow fruitfulness.

This is one of my favourite times of the year. It is also the month when I got married and the month when my mother died - a new beginning as a wife and also the end of an era when I lost my mum.

Life doesn't stand still does it, and we have to meet the challenges of new beginnings and say goodbye to the old and familiar.

I have just finished my term of office as a vestry steward after 9 years, and it made me think back as to what has happened in our church over that time.

Obviously we have said a sad farewell to some of our friends, but have joyously welcomed quite a lot of grandchildren between us. Our kitchen is now 9 years old [can you believe that] and due to our monthly lunches we have embraced the wider community and made friends with folk from other churches. The computer club has also been functioning for nine years and brings people in from outside the church. Cafe worship has been introduced and is very successful in attracting families with young children. The area at the back of the church has been transformed into a play area for small children and the church hall is being decorated. We greatly appreciate the screen in the church which enables us to watch films and view photographs, as well as providing the words of our hymns.

I could continue but I think I have used up enough space.

It is good sometimes to look back and reflect on all that has happened in the past, but this time of year heralds a new beginning for lots of reasons. It is the start of a new church year. Many children face going to new schools, and saying goodbye to a familiar teacher. Young adults are leaving home for the first time to go to university, and parents have to face the prospect of an empty nest; not all bad you might think - no more loud music, untidy rooms and mountains of washing. It is surprising though how much you miss it. After my children left home I still found myself shopping for and cooking too much food for just two people.

We all have to adapt to new ways and challenges and I wish you all well in the coming new chapters of your lives.

See you in church.

Love from Kathy. xx

Harvest

This year our harvest celebrations will take place on Sunday 18th September with a café worship service.

The Church Council has chosen Tools With A Mission (TWAM) as our harvest charity. As well as monetary donations we will be making a tool collection and also hoping to make up a few scholar packs. Please see the noticeboard at the back of the church for details of acceptable items.

As in previous years, to make the church look 'harvesty' we will be decorating the church with fruit and flowers on Saturday 17th from 10am. The flowers will be distributed to the sick and elderly but we ask that other items are taken back, by those who brought them, after the service. Various church organisations will be asked to decorate some of the window sills but it would be good to be able to decorate the vestibule too, so everybody is invited to join in the decoration and provision of flowers etc. as we celebrate and give thanks to God for he all has provided for us.

A few facts about TWAM which started over 25 years ago:

- It enables people in Africa to earn a living and to support themselves.
- It collects and refurbishes tools and equipment no longer required in the UK and sends them overseas.
- In 2010 over 434 separate projects benefited from 220 tonnes of aid, (worth over £1m), shipped from

TWAM's warehouse in Ipswich and sent to Zambia, Uganda, Rwanda, Kenya, South Africa, Tanzania and Sierra Leone.

- Each container of goods costs £3000 to send
- Many of the tools and equipment are sent to schools, colleges and training establishments to help children and young people learn a useful trade.

Please support our harvest in order to help TWAM 'Tackling Poverty with Practical Skills'.

DATES

Sept 6th Tuesday – `Kids' Club 6pm

Thank You

Joyce Boulter would like to thank the church for the lovely flowers and card received on the occasion of her 90th birthday and for everyone's love and best wishes which all added to a wonderful day of celebrations for her.

Church Family Weekend

On 15th July twenty five adults and nine children from Seaton Road wended our way to Belsey Bridge Conference centre Ditchingham for our Church Family Weekend away.

Although the same place we always go to, the Centre has been taken over since our last visit and now has a new name. Apart from one or two improvements it was very much the same place that we all know and love. Unfortunately the English summer weather wasn't very summery but, apart from this meaning the use of the outdoor swimming pool was not a possibility, this didn't effect our enjoyment.

The theme of the weekend was 'Roots and Routes' and on the Friday evening after dinner we explored this with a fun evening of a music quiz, making magic maize pictures and a turtle travelling race. The evening ended with a short worship session.

On Saturday morning we had two sessions. In the first one we solved clues to help us travel around the country and find out more about the roots of some of our church family.

Following coffee we again had to solve clues but this time using the Bible to get our directions and completing forfeits if we took a wrong turn. One of the forfeits involved building a bridge from cardboard and it was a joy to see how the seven youngest children could have so much fun from a small amount of cardboard – I'm sure there is a sermon there somewhere!

The outdoor activities often undertaken during the free time of the Saturday afternoon were curtailed by the very wet weather but everyone still managed to keep themselves occupied – some went swimming in the indoor pool at Bungay, some watched videos of previous church family weekends and saw how we'd aged over 20+ years (not always a pretty sight!!!!), some did the jigsaw which is always a part of the weekend, some read and some slept! In the evening after a short concert, which included a visit from Beryl and Gladys (aka David and Elizabeth) Malcolm led us around Felixstowe with a pictorial quiz. After prayers and coffee the 'stay up late people' had great fun with an impromptu game of 'Pringol' (using a small empty Pringle container) and tiddlewinks – just shows we are all still children at heart!!!

The first session of Sunday morning, in the form of a prayer walk around the beautiful grounds at Ditchingham, was led by David. Singing to flute and guitar we had a hymn, prayer and reading at each of the five stops. The children did a bit of tree climbing and bubble blowing on the way! Everyone agreed this, as always, was a very special time praising God in the open air among the trees and overlooking the fields. The rest of the morning was spent reflectively through spiritual creativity or crafts.

The final session was spent in worship, bringing all parts of the weekend together through song, word, prayer and dance.

All too soon the weekend came to an end. It was time to gather our belongings (it's incredible the amount of things we take and how they 'spread' over the two days!), pack up and say our goodbyes.

We give our thanks to God for another weekend full of fun and fellowship – a time to share conversation, thoughts, activities and meals as a church family of all ages from 2 to 92.

The date for our next church family weekend away in 2013 will soon have to be booked. If you would like to know more please have a word with anyone who went or one of the stewards.

Quiz winner

Congratulations to Jean Bennett who was the winner of the recent car quiz. If you would like to check the answers they are on the church noticeboard. Another quiz sheet is now available, priced 50p a copy, so if you would like to purchase a copy and exercise your grey matter please see Kathy.

A taste of Uganda

What a wonderful evening we had on Saturday July 23rd when the Mission Area gathered at Seaton Road to welcome Catriona home from her year in Uganda and hear all about her experiences. Firstly, the Bentley family had prepared some simple Ugandan food for us to sample. By the time we had had a spoonful of everything our plates were quite full and some of the dishes which looked 'different' actually tasted good. After feasting on stews, rice, sweet potatoes, plantain, a peanut recipe plus some other dishes, we finished our meal with more familiar banana, pineapple and mango, all fruits very common in Uganda.

Leaving all the dirty dishes we moved into the church to listen to Catriona's experiences of life, work, leisure and worship in Uganda as she showed us pictures of the many people and places we had heard about in the emails she had regularly sent home during the year. Catriona is an anaesthetist and her skills saw her assisting and performing operations for cleft palette and hair lip, removal of tumours and caesarean sections to name a few. We were touched by many of the pictures, particularly those of the small children having surgery and the new born babies all lined up on a trolley to go to the nursery. Ugandan operating theatres are sparsely equipped so Catriona quickly learnt to adapt to using what equipment there was. She was also able to offer some of her expertise by training others to continue the work when she returned to England.

Catriona also told us about general life in Uganda – climate, food, transport, shopping etc and it did show us that we should never complain about the state of British roads again!! During the year Catriona worshipped at several different churches but the main one was one whose services could last up to 5 hours long! Apparently, people come and go during the service but most people stay for the entirety. Again perhaps we should give this some thought when our services go five minutes over the hour!!

Looking at the keepsakes Catriona had collected, or been given as leaving presents, and watching the slides many of us could appreciate a small part of how the Ugandan people live and why Catriona has been so touched by them and the country and would be happy to return if she has the opportunity.

We thank Catriona for sharing her Ugandan experience with us and making the people and country more 'real' to us. She has now returned to Birmingham to complete her consultancy training over the next eighteen months. We wish her well and pray that she will not find it too hard to settle into Western living again.

Holiday Club Starship Discovery 5-4-3-2-1 we have lift off!

Our holiday club this year was called 'Starship Discovery' and was held every morning of the first week of the school holidays. Having transformed (excuse the pun) the church hall into outer space with stars, planets and spaceships everywhere, we were ready to receive the first of the children on the Monday morning.

5-4-3-2-1 we have lift off! We had over 30 children pre-booked and numbers each day ranged between 31 and 42 so a good number for our hall. We worked in six groups; the Roaring Rockets, Amazing Aliens, Mighty Meteorites, Spinning Planets, Space Walkers and Flying Saucers.

Each morning was planned down to the last minute, although we did sometimes find ourselves playing catch up to get everything finished before the children were collected at 12.30pm. We had singing, team challenges, memory verses, Grandma Watts cosmic bop (aerobics), stories, games, drama, puppets, quizzes, crafts and refreshments. Listed like that I'm surprised we managed to get it all in each morning!!

The children were fantastic. They quickly learned the words and actions to songs, bops and memory verses, enthusiastically joined in with the games and listened quietly to the bible story, drama and Ratty and Stinky, our puppet friends.

The whole week was based on the bible stories of Peter – turning, trusting, tripping, transforming and training. The Watts family portrayed an equivalent modern day scenario in each day's drama as they were transported into outer space complete with a transporter, flashing light and smoke!

On the Friday morning parents, families and friends were invited to see what the children had been up to all week. It was good to have a large number supporting this and they cheered enthusiastically as each group of children marched around the hall showing the various crafts they had made during the week which included teeshirts, rockets (thank you to all those who supplied empty kitchen roll holders) air dry clay models of an alien on a flying saucer or shooting star, and edible aliens. Following the march round our guests were treated to the bop, singing and drama.

Holiday club extra was held on the Sunday morning when we shared with the church family some of the week's events. It was encouraging to have 15 of the youngsters and their parents joining us too, as well as some of the helpers.

The whole week was great fun, very tiring but a good form of outreach to children and families in our area, giving us the opportunity to share God's love for us all.

A week like this does not just happen and we say a very big thank you to David and Elizabeth, Moe from Walton Parish Church and friends from Trinity and Trimley Methodist churches, as well as everyone from Seaton Road, who helped us in any way to make our 'Starship Discovery' week such a success.

Cycle Ride

Saturday 10th September

The bike ride is nearly upon us and once again we will be participating. Jonathan is planning to ride, so keep an eye out for his sponsor forms. Any other intending riders should see Malcolm. We are still one or two people short for the signing-in rota (in the vestibule). If you are able to spare an hour checking cyclists into the church it would be appreciated- just put your name in a slot on the rota. Full training and biscuits will be provided.

Past and future.....

As September is the beginning of the Methodist year it is a time for changes in the vestry. Firstly, a big thank you to Kathy Fullick and Rosemary Cross, as they retire from their role as steward, for all their hard work over the past few years, and then we are pleased to welcome Shirl Stockley to the team. We are still short of the full compliment of stewards so if this is something that you think God is calling you to do please have a word with David or one of the stewards.

Finally on behalf of the minister and stewards may I wish you all a very happy Methodist New Year.

Macmillan Coffee Morning

Robert and Heather Farthing will again be opening their office doors and inviting you to take part in the Macmillan World's Biggest Coffee Morning. There will be a number of events in Felixstowe, Walton and Trimley on 30th September, so why not drop in to Farthing Funeral Service at 126 High Road West between 10.00am and 12 midday as part of a tour around the town.

Coffee, tea and home made cakes will be on offer, for whatever donation you feel appropriate. Macmillan Cancer Support is celebrating its centenary this year, and is making every effort to make it a bumper year. Macmillan offers invaluable support to many of the families Robert and Heather encounter and so the funeral service is holding one or two extra fundraising events over the course of 2011.

Do call in – you will be very welcome.
